GLOBAL HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

MSc

MSC GLOBAL HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

ORGANISATIONS ACROSS THE WORLD UNDERSTAND THE CONCEPT OF HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT (HRM), BUT ALSO KNOW THAT HUMAN RESOURCE (HR) MEASURES THAT ARE EFFECTIVE IN ONE COUNTRY CAN FAIL IN ANOTHER.

On this Master's course, you'll use case studies of real organisations to learn how to effectively manage and resolve human resource issues on a global scale.

COURSE OVERVIEW

You'll take an international approach to HRM, developing a unique skill set that can help you stand out from the competition as organisations increasingly expand across borders.

You'll develop analytical, critical and information technology skills, as well as people skills, to allow you to connect with employees of varying attitudes, perceptions and values.

You can use an issue from your current employment as a basis for your final investigative project which may help you progress within your career. You'll leave this course with the knowledge and problem-solving experience needed to effectively manage employees from a diverse range of backgrounds, helping you to become a valuable asset to businesses worldwide.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- A second-class honours degree or equivalent in any academic subject seeking to pursue or continue a career in HR
- English language proficiency at a minimum of IELTS band 6.5 with no component score below 6.0 (or other acceptable proof), if English is not your first language

Applicants who don't have a degree or formal qualifications, but who have appropriate professional experience, may also be considered. You may be invited to an interview with a member of the teaching team.

If you're unsure whether you're eligible to apply, please speak to one of our course advisers by phoning +44 (0)23 9400 3692 or emailing info@study-online.port.ac.uk
